PART OF YOUR COMMUNITY

Every day, the RCMP in New Brunswick works hard, not only to solve crime, but to prevent it. From conducting checkstops to curbing unsafe driving practices, leading investigations to help reduce the illegal drugs available on our streets, or simply reaching out to at-risk young people, we are committed to making a positive difference. While police have a vital role to play, our success rests heavily on strong partnerships within the communities we serve, with other law enforcement agencies and with our partners. Working together, we can achieve our collective goal in New Brunswick: to keep our beautiful province and its people safe and secure.

MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER OF PUBLIC SAFETY AND SOLICITOR GENERAL

Reducing criminal activity in our province takes a collaborative effort. The RCMP is a crucial partner in maintaining public safety and upholding law and order across New Brunswick.

The RCMP demonstrate unwavering commitment and dedication to our communities. Your extensive range of specialized services, combined with operational expertise and effectiveness, has elevated our Provincial Policing Service to national and international recognition. Through collaboration, the utilization of individual strengths, and mutual respect, we continue to nurture and strengthen our communities.

The provincial government's commitment to ensuring the safety of New Brunswickers led us to make a significant investment in policing last year. This resulted in a 15 per cent increase in the number of police officers, including funding for 80 new RCMP officers across the province.

I express my gratitude to all RCMP members for their professionalism and dedicated service to the people of New Brunswick. I always receive positive feedback about the exceptional quality of their work, both in everyday situations and during exceptional circumstances.

Hon. Kris Austin

Minister of Public Safety and Solicitor General
Department of Justice and Public Safety

MESSAGE FROM THE COMMANDING OFFICER

On behalf of the New Brunswick RCMP, I am proud to present our 2023 Annual Report which highlights our policing professionals and the extensive services we provide to our communities.

In 2023, we celebrated the 150th anniversary of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police - a significant milestone for both the RCMP, our country, and the communities we serve. This anniversary provided us with an opportunity to reflect on the role we have played as well as the relationships with our partners in law enforcement, and our communities, that we have forged along the way.

The policing landscape across the country, and within New Brunswick, is ever changing, filled with complexities, increased demands, and expectations which weigh heavily on all of us.

In 2023, the New Brunswick RCMP received an increase in funding from the province which was aimed at bolstering our specialized services, as well as enhancing our frontline. This increase in funding has allowed us to allocate additional resources, which in turn will promote our service capacity in areas such as police visibility and response to calls for service. These new resources on the frontline will alleviate pressures in areas that have been significantly challenged for a decade, promoting officer wellness and safety.

I am deeply and incredibly proud of this Division. Together, we have answered hundreds of thousands of calls for service and have solved homicides, seized record amounts of drugs and firearms, assisted the vulnerable, prepared cases for court, located the missing, executed advanced and specialized investigative techniques, enforced traffic regulations, protected our borders, disrupted organized crime groups, embraced our communities at various events, and built new positions to strengthen our collective capabilities.

Each day, I am reminded of how fortunate I am to serve as the Commanding Officer in this wonderful province alongside the talented and dedicated employees in this Division. Each unit, program, and support service within the New Brunswick RCMP is unique, delivering on numerous tasks that lead toward the greater good. The expertise and effectiveness with which we operate has greatly contributed to the safety of New Brunswickers across the province for decades, and I believe that the challenges we have faced have brought out the best in us and demonstrate that we are leaders in the law enforcement community.

To all New Brunswickers - I thank you for the trust you place in us. The pages in this report demonstrate our pride in moving toward a modern, diverse, and trusted organization. In 2024, I will continue to tell our story, and we will continue to build, grow, and collaborate with our communities to maximize on efficiencies and partnerships, so we are the best we can be.

INDIGENOUS VOICE LEARNING SERIES

Between 2022 and 2023, the Indigenous Policing Section hosted five Indigenous Voice Learning Series sessions. Elders were invited to share their unique knowledge, insights, cultural heritage, beliefs, and the challenges they face to J Division employees. The series aims to open our hearts and minds to cultures that have treasured our planet and share insights that we can use to connect more with nature and each other.

MAJOR CRIME UNIT

In September of 2023, a 27-year-old man from Moncton, N.B., was charged with two counts of first-degree murder in connection with the 2019 deaths of Bernard and Rose-Marie Saulnier. The investigation began on September 7, 2019, when the bodies of 78-year-old Bernard Saulnier and 74-year-old Rose-Marie Saulnier were found in their home on Amirault Street in Dieppe. The investigation was exceptionally complex and involved a number of specialized units and teams, whose exhaustive work and dedication over the course of four years has brought justice to the Saulnier family.

UNDERWATER RECOVERY TEAM

In 2023, the New Brunswick RCMP's Underwater Recovery Team (URT) was deployed on five different occasions to assist with searching for missing persons and drowning victims. On a separate occasion, they were deployed to recover a submerged vehicle that had been reported stolen. The URT is a crucial specialized team that has the ability to investigate a broad scope of incidents on and under the water, and in many cases, is able to recover victims and bring closure to families. This year, the URT welcomed four new members; two have successfully passed training at the National Underwater Recovery Team Center in Nanaimo, B.C., and two are currently undergoing the training.

-  Drive sober
-  Follow the speed limit
-  Put down your phone

 If you know of or suspect an impaired driver - call 9-1-1 - it IS an emergency

TRAFFIC ENFORCEMENT

In 2023, we continued to focus on targeting unsafe driving behaviours.

MOVE OVER LAW

On January 1, 2021, changes were made to the Move Over law. The new Move Over law provisions require motorists to move over, and slow down to half of the posted speed limit when emergency responders and service vehicles such as tow trucks, highway maintenance vehicles and private and public utility vehicles are pulled over with their flashing lights engaged.
